8. COUNSELLING SUPERVISION

On being awarded membership of COSCA, you must ensure that you have sufficient hours of supervised counselling/therapy practice appropriate to your counselling/therapy work as follows:

- counsellors who have been accredited for less than 5 years with BACP should have not less than 1.5 hours supervision per month, and the ratio should be appropriate to the volume and nature of client work. This level is not directly linked to the number of counselling hours. When the 1.5 hours per month level means that accredited counsellors would require more counselling supervision than under the standard 1:12 ratio, they can opt to follow the 1:12 ratio. The above levels are the recommended minimum level of counselling supervision and are not maximum levels. Depending on their assessment of the volume and nature of the client work, accredited counsellors would be expected to increase these levels.
- counsellors who have been accredited for more than 5 years with BACP should have supervision not less than 1 hour per month and the supervision should be appropriate to the volume and nature of client work.
- the years of counsellor accreditation with BACP count towards the 5 years of accreditation necessary to fulfil the requirement of the above 1.5 hours and one hour of supervision per month.

How many years have you been accredited with BACP?

_____ YEARS

On award of COSCA Membership I will abide by the above requirements:
