WHAT IS COSCA's VISION?

COSCA's vision:

- a listening, caring society that values people's wellbeing

WHO IS INVOLVED IN COSCA's WORK?

COSCA is a charity and a voluntary organisation. Its Policy Board governs it and a small team of staff and a growing number of volunteers implements its work. It is a developing organisation with now almost 900 individual and organisational members across the voluntary, statutory and independent sectors in Scotland. The Scottish Government is the major investor in our work.

WHY DONATE TO COSCA?

We live in times when more people are distressed, anxious and stressed than ever before. COSCA's work helps to alleviate these very real human problems by supporting counsellors, psychotherapist and uses of counselling skills to be effective in delivering professional counselling services to the public.
