

Westminster offers comprehensive insurance coverage for a wide range of businesses, including those in Counselling & Psychotherapy, and many other fields.

Whether you offer a product or service, be it for payment or free, you need protection for when the unexpected happens – and it does, even to the best of us! Don't forget that false claims are common too, which means even when you are not at fault at all, you find yourself faced with an expensive legal battle defending yourself.

Westminster's comprehensive Professional Indemnity, Public Liability and Medical Malpractice insurance, is designed to provide all the essential coverage you need. With optional extras like Cyber and Data, Personal Accident, Office Content, Portable Business Equipment, and Employers Liability coverage, you can tailor your protection to suit your exact needs.

Getting started is a breeze with their simple instant online quote, and you can have your policy in place in minutes – leaving you to get on with your business. Their unbeatable customer service and thousands of happy customers are testament to their commitment to helping people. Get started today – because your business deserves the best cover at the best price!
