

KASP: Kingdom Abuse Survivors Project

Manager (full time)

Salary: £40,000 – £43,000

Location: Kirkcaldy

Closing: 28th August

General Holiday Allowance of 42 days per year

Role

Kingdom Abuse Survivors Project (KASP) are looking to recruit a Manager to lead our established and dedicated team in providing a range of counselling and support for survivors of childhood sexual abuse who live in the Fife area.

The post holder will work closely with, and report to the Board of Trustees to lead on the development, delivery and evaluation of existing and new services. The post will involve: –

Working with a range of stakeholders to improve the identification of, and responses to, the impact of childhood sexual abuse.

Applying and reporting to a variety of funders as required.

Organisation management of the service delivery staff, both paid and voluntary, including counsellors, response workers, befrienders, sessional workers, finance and administration staff.

This role is pivotal in the success of our mission and ambition to support survivors in leading a full, meaningful and inclusive life.

We are looking for someone who is collaborative and forward thinking in their approach, has excellent inter-personal skills, is able to adapt quickly to change and has the ability to work at a strategic level. Applicants will be able to demonstrate the following: –

Current or former experience of managing/leading a team.

Qualified to Diploma Level in Counselling.

Experience of working in a trauma informed manner.

Experience of budget management and evaluating resources.

A clear understanding of the need to build and sustain partnerships with stakeholders and other third sector providers.

The ability to lead our business strategy at a local level whilst promoting KASP.

Registration with a recognised counselling body such as COSCA or BACP (advantageous)

Experience of providing support and supervision to counsellors (advantageous)

Experience of working with survivors of childhood sexual abuse (advantageous)

At KASP we believe in developing all of our staff and provide excellent learning opportunities along with the delivery of training programmes to external organisations.

This post is subject to PVG check.

